 Class Matter.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1905.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was

3,634

copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

With the opening of the hunting season today, fall is just at the threshhold.

Gov. Douglas' third refusal ought to disqualify him from the game of politics down in Massachusetts.

Rockefeller is planning to give away money on a larger scale than ever known. Hold your hat.

As if Portsmouth, N. H., had not been given enough notoriety, an earthquake comes along and kept the little city in the newspaper headlines.

A Lyndonville man has just died, at the age of 101 years. Did he or did he not use liquor and tobacco? Most elderly people ascribe their longevity to the use of the two or the total abstinence from them.

There was a creditable piece of work done when the city school department placed the fire escapes on the Church street school building. Parents of children who attend school in this building will feel much less apprehension.

"The queen of the navy" is the appellation which the newspapers give the new battleship Vermont, named after one of the smallest states of the union and one of the most rock-ribbed, as well as a state which has no coast line. Vermont ought to be satisfied.

There is a sudden cooling in enthusiasm now that the first flush of joy over the conclusion of peace negotiations is passed. The sober-minded reality that the emperors are final authority for ratification. It is not likely that either will attempt to overthrow the great work accomplished.

Now that it is all over and there is no possibility of harm coming to him, Linevitch is calling for a chance to get at Oyama. The report emanating from Russia that the people think Linevitch ought to have been given one more whack at the Japanese displays the comedy side of the great drama which has been going on during the past few weeks.

The percentage of increase in the population in Massachusetts was very much less for the period from 1900 to 1905 than for the five years just preceding, according to the figures just compiled by Mr. Edgins, the head of the bureau of statistics of labor. The reason for this falling off he finds in the failure to develop the state's manufactures.
 Industrial development is the only agency that is keeping Vermont's head above the level in the matter of population.

Charged With Immoral Conduct.

Burlington, Sept. 1.—Tony Mento, an Italian laborer, was arrested by the police yesterday on a charge of immoral conduct. He was arrested on complaint of a girl named Sophia Gladstone. Mento's actions of late have made him a terror to several women on the lower road, who will be glad to learn he has been locked up.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

Two Good Reasons.

Goofy.—In speaking of your automobile, why do you always refer to it in the feminine gender as she?
 Shoofer.—Well, the auto is so hard to manage and so blamed expensive!— Brooklyn Life.

A Monopolist.

"That prima donna insists on monopolizing everything," said the manager.
 "Is it a question of the spot light again?"
 "Worse than that. It's a question of the spot cash."—Washington Star.

Only an Episode.

Mary.—Uncle Ned, what's a honeymoon?
 Bachelor Uncle.—The time between the marriage and divorce.—Translated from Megendorfer Blatter.

Joy's Climax.

O it's been a bully summer, full of rain and shine—a hummer, though the cli-mate's getting hummer every season, as you know.
 There has been of rain a plenty, raining eighteen days in twenty, and where'er a fellow went 'e took his bumbershoot, I trow.

Market truck's growing cheap and cheaper, and the rank Virginia creeper has been springing like a leaper—growing faster than the hop.
 But though rain is death on hay and our other work delaying, yet the Orioles are staying mighty handy to the top.

Who would care a single penny, be the bright days few or many, if of crops there are not any, so the ball team wins the flag?
 Who would kick on rainy weather? What we want to know is whether he who hit the ball of leather reached the first or second bag.

What care we what Russ of Japs do, how the farmers' growing "crops" do—what these spitball-slugging chaps do is the news we love to spread; Thus our souls with joy are singing, and our spirits skyward winging, as we see our home team clinging up so handy to the head.
 —Baltimore American.

Lighten the Load

 a guest at the Orange County Hotel.
 Mrs. Meader is accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Shipman.

The services of our "village blacksmith," William Hill, are becoming quite popular as a "starter" at the races in connection with the agricultural fair, having already been engaged by the management of the Woodstock & "World's Fair" Association to perform the duties of such office at their coming meets.
